Food and Culture in Southern France

Travel Dates: June 18 - June 24, 2017

About the Program

This 3 credit summer A course includes a one week food, culture and culinary experience in southern France where you will:

- ◆ Visit a traditional French food market
- ◆ Enjoy hands on cooking lessons with two highly recognized French chefs
- ◆ Savor a lovely assortment of French meals and products
- ◆ Enjoy a culinary experience at a Michelin star restaurant
- ◆ Visit producers of local French products such as goat cheese, olive oil, honey and/or wine
- ◆ Tour a historic city
- ◆ Stay in the French countryside in a beautifully restored French manor

About the Location

The Languedoc-Roussillon region of France is the southernmost region of mainland France. It is bordered by five other regions of France, including Provence and Midi-Pyrenees, and the Mediterranean Sea. The beautiful countryside includes vast acres of vineyards, sunflowers, orchards and other agricultural products, as well as ancient towns and cities. The region has been an important winemaking center for centuries.

Accommodations

You will share a room with another student in a beautifully restored French manor home and one night in a hotel.
