Course Description and Prerequisites: This course discusses nutrient-gene interactions, and how they regulate gene and protein expression in metabolic health and disease. Specifically, the course covers the basis of epigenetics (i.e., DNA methylation, histone modification, and non-coding RNA), the dietary and nutritional contributions to epigenetic programming of metabolism, and epigenetic mechanisms underlying metabolic disease risks (e.g., obesity, diabetes, cardiovascular disease, and cancer) across generations. The cutting-edge research evidence will be discussed and used for problem solving activities.

Prerequisites for Undergraduates: BSC 2010 and BSC 2010L or equivalent; Pre-requisites for Graduate Students: M.S. or Ph.D. student in life sciences.

Course Learning Objectives: By the end of this course, students will be able to
1. Explain the molecular events of epigenetic programing.
2. Interpret the epigenetic roles of diets or nutrients in metabolic disease.
3. Identify gaps and handle controversies in current literature.
4. Apply epigenetics knowledge and research evidence to real-life issues.
5. Design studies or projects to address the identified research questions.
6. Present and justify scientific positions or research ideas.

This course uses the e-Learning (Canvas) system for postings of various class materials, as well as scores for exams and other assignments. Access to e-Learning requires a Gatorlink account. To establish a Gatorlink account, go to http://www.gatorlink.ufl.edu/. Once you have created an account, access the e-learning homepage at http://elearning.ufl.edu/. Continue with e-Learning Login using your Gatorlink ID.

Textbook: None required. The required readings are enclosed at the end of this syllabus. In addition, Power Point slides and reading assignments from various sources (e.g. textbook chapters, current review articles, etc.) will be posted at Canvas.

Attendance and Make-Up Work
In accordance with the University of Florida's policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/, class attendance and participation are mandatory. Students will behave in an appropriate manner in class, taking care not to disrupt other students learning activities. Students are asked to be punctual and submit assignments on time. Make-up work and assignments are consistent with university policies (visit the link sown above).
Student Evaluation:
The assessments will be comprised of 5 quizzes (24 points each), 3 assignments (50 points each), and a final project: position paper or research proposal (writing – 70 points, and oral presentation -60 points). Quizzes and assignments will be administered in class. Quizzes will be 30-min timed and administered on Canvas. Each quiz (closed book) contains 8 'choose an answer among multiple choices' questions and 2 short-answer questions. Assignment instructions and grading rubrics will be posted at Canvas.

Quizzes must be taken when scheduled. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped and four quiz grades will be counted towards the final grade (%). A missed quiz will count as the dropped quiz. Any other missed quizzes will result in a grade of “0” unless there are unavoidable extenuating circumstances (subject to our discretion) that can be documented to our satisfaction. Extenuating circumstances include unavoidable, unplanned situations such as illness (chart note from physician or clinic; vague notes such as “was seen” are not acceptable); family death (dated obituary); accident (police report); or an interview at a professional school (official invitation), etc. An excused, documented absence from a quiz will result in the grade for the missed quiz being calculated as the average of the other quizzes.

Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.
