Nutrition Therapy and Pathophysiology (4th edition) by Nelms, Sucher, Lacey and Ross, 2020.

Course Format: The lectures will primarily be in-person. Your final course grade will be derived from 2 homework assignments, participation, 6 on-line quizzes (lowest dropped), 3 in-class exams, and a cumulative in-class final exam. The course will consist of PPT slides that will usually be posted prior to the beginning of class (MWF 1:55 PM). Grades will be posted on Canvas. Extra credit opportunities based on extra participation may be given at the discretion of the instructor throughout the semester. Grades will be posted on Canvas. It is your responsibility to check for any discrepancies in points and report them to your instructor immediately.

ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING:

Assignments: There will be two (2) take-home assignments throughout the semester. Assignments with detailed instructions will be posted to Canvas. These assignments will contribute 50 points each to your final course grade. Please be aware that due dates may be adjusted as needed based on lecture schedule. Also, keep a PRINTED copy of all of your assignments in the event that it becomes lost due to technical failures. Please contact a teaching assistant first if you have a question about an assignment grade. If there are still questions, the project will be given to Dr. Mobley for a re-grade. However, the entire project will be re-graded and may result in a lower grade. If you choose to compare your project grade to another student's project grade then both projects need to be submitted for re-grading.

ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED VIA E-MAIL!!!!!!!!!!!!

Late Policy

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time. All assignments will be collected promptly in class. Assignments not turned in at this time will be subject to a 5% late penalty. In addition, a penalty of 10% will be imposed for each day that the assignment is late. Late assignments will be collected at the next class meeting unless you make arrangements with the TA to turn in the late assignment before the next scheduled class meeting time.

Participation: Periodic participation activities will be administered or assigned to reinforce material learned. There are no make-ups for participation activities unless there are extenuating circumstances.

Quizzes: There will be 6 online quizzes worth 10 points each. The lowest quiz score will be dropped for a total of 50 points. The questions used for the quizzes are similar in format and style to those used on the exams. No make-up quizzes will be available.

Exams: There will be 3 in-class exams valued equally at 100 points each and a cumulative in-class final exam valued at 200 points. The format of all exams will consist of multiple-choice, true/false, matching, and possibly short answers. Calculators and scratch paper will be allowed.

"The Rules" during Exams and Quizzes

The exams will be in-class. The exams will be closed-book so STUDY YOUR NOTES frequently. You will usually have 50-60 minutes to complete the exam. Once you begin, you must finish it within the allotted time.

Printing, copying, communicating (e.g.- discussing exam questions with others before closing of the exam), photographing, snip/sketch, etc. quiz and/or exam questions ARE STRICTLY PROHIBITED and subject to academic misconduct. In which case, contact your instructor immediately by e-mail (stacey.mobley@ufl.edu) to discuss the situation and to make suitable arrangements for a make-up exam – appropriate documentation of the absence must be provided in order to receive a make-up exam. The make-up exam may be essay.

If you must miss an exam due to a University-approved reason (e.g. university sanctioned athletics, competition,), you may complete the exam after your absence if documentation of the anticipated absence is provided to your instructor. The scheduled make-up exam (date and time) is at the discretion of Dr. Mobley. Contact your instructor well in advance to coordinate a mutually convenient alternative exam time. Online Course Evaluation Process

Student assessment of instruction is an important part of efforts to improve teaching and learning. At the end of the semester, students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course using a standard set of university and college criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open for students to complete during the last two or three weeks of the semester; students will be notified of the specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Academic Honesty: As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity." You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in this course unless I give explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. in-class assignments). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see:

<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/scctr/process/student-conduct-honor-code>.

Software Use: All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Services for Students with Disabilities: 0001 Reid Hall, 352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/ The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities.
