Course Description	Introductory Food Science is a comprehensive course providing introductory knowledge of food chemistry, food laws, food processing & preservation, food microbiology & fermentation, food safety, and food engineering. This course confers General Education credit for Biology (B). There is a Distance Learning Fee involved with this course ($12.99 total, i.e., $4.33 per credit hour).
Course Objectives	Provide a comprehensive overview of food science and technology; define and examine the differences between food constituents; identify reasons behind food deterioration and spoilage; introduce food laws and regulations; gain a basic understanding of methods used to preserve foods; and to explore basic food processing and preservation techniques.

Here is a link to the General Education Objectives for Biological Sciences \(B\).

At the end of this course, students will be expected to have achieved the following learning outcomes in content, communication and critical thinking:

- Content: Students demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, theories and methodologies used within the subject area.

Students will acquire a basic understanding of food science, the areas of study within the field such as food chemistry, food safety, and food processing.

Achievement of this learning outcome will be assessed through a written assignment and several quizzes and exams.

- Communication: Students communicate knowledge, ideas and reasoning clearly and effectively in written and oral forms appropriate to the subject area.

Students will communicate food science information to a general audience in a basic and clear manner.

Achievement of this learning outcome will be assessed through a recorded oral assignment. The students will create an oral presentation to teach the use of a Nutrition Facts label to a general audience. They will test the efficiency of their performance by quizzing their trainee following their presentation.

- Critical Thinking: Students carefully and logically analyze information from multiple perspectives and develop reasoned solutions to problems within the subject area.

Students will prepare a report that requires research and analysis of news articles discriminating food science topics from similar fields, e.g., nutrition.

Achievement of this learning outcome will be assessed through a written assignment where they will discuss the credibility of their source and categorize the information in the news article into one of the modules of the course.

Online Proctoring

Honorlock will proctor your exams (Exams 1, 2, 3, 4) this semester. You DO NOT need to create an account, download software, or schedule an appointment in advance. Honorlock is available 24/7 and all that is needed is a computer, a working webcam, and a stable Internet connection.

To get started, you will need Google Chrome and to download the Honorlock Chrome Extension. You can download the extension at www.honorlock.com/extension/install

A practice quiz is available for all students to prepare their computers for the exams; this is the 11th quiz that counts towards the final letter grade.

When you are ready to take your Honorlock Practice Quiz or any of the exams, log into Canvas, go to your course, and click on the exam. Clicking "Launch Proctoring" will begin the Honorlock authentication process, where you will take a picture of yourself, show your ID, and complete a scan of your room. Honorlock will be recording your exam session by webcam as well as recording your screen.

Honorlock also has an integrity algorithm that can detect search-engine use, so please do not attempt to search for answers, even if it is on a secondary device. You will be allowed to use the slides and the required reading from the course page on Canvas. Slides and required reading material may also be printed out for use during the exams. These slide printouts may have your handwritten notes on them. No other printed or handwritten documents are allowed.

Absences and Make-Up Work

The students have one full week to take the exams. Make-ups will only be considered for medical excuses with proper documentation, e.g., a note from the doctor's office.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>.

Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results>

Academic Honesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

The Honor Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university's counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems or lacking clear career or academic goals, which interfere with their academic performance.

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center.

Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
