Recording class sessions

Note: Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who unmute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited. Please notify instructor if you aren't able to allow recording.

Student communication in class and online:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

Assignments and Course Policies:

Assignments must be turned in on the day they are due. Any assignment that is late will be penalized 10% for each day late. All assignments are due by 11:59pm on the due date.

Professional Development Project: Each student will complete a self-assessment, a resume, a letter of intent and a personal statement for a dietetic internship, graduate school or job application.

Legislative Project: Students will evaluate a current political issue impacting dietetics practice. This semester's focus is on S.N.A.P food assistance program and the position of the Registered Dietitians. After researching the issue and writing a three- five-page paper (with an additional page for reference/cited work page), each student will draft a letter to their Florida State Representative member of legislator or senator and talking points for an in-person meeting explaining the issue and their position on the issue. Each student will present in class on their position the last 2 class meetings of the semester.

Attendance: Attendance is required. Each student is allowed one absence before their attendance grade will be affected. After one absence each unexcused absence results in 10 points being deducted from your attendance grade. You must contact me prior to class if you are ill or have reasons for which attendance must be excused and you must provide documentation of your illness or other activity. Students are also expected to arrive on time to the Zoom platform for class. Students who are more than 5 minutes late will lose 5 points from their attendance grade for each time they are late. It is a professional courtesy to be on time. The Zoom link will be open approximately 10 mins before the start of class and will allow students to adjust and mute microphones, headsets and screens.

Participation: Much of the course content is learned through class discussions. All students are required to contribute to discussions. There will be frequent discussions of legislative issues related to dietetics in public policy discussions facilitated by groups of students.

Academic Honesty

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/SCCR/honorcodes/honorcode.php> (Links to an external site.).

Software Use:

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Services for Students with Disabilities

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting “classroom accommodation” must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.
